

Greater Oxford Civic Association – General Information

The Greater Oxford Civic Association is committed to protecting the Oxford community and enhancing the overall neighborhood. This all-volunteer group focuses on issues such as land use development, crime-watch, City/County initiatives, neighborhood improvements and a variety of other issues that are fundamental to strengthening our area. The neighborhood is comprised of nearly 600 homes, 75% in the City of Richmond and 25% in Chesterfield County. The community is bound by the James River to the North, the town of Bon Air to the South; Huguenot Road to the West and Rattlesnake Creek to the East.

Throughout the year we engage with the community in a variety of programs and sponsorships. Some of these include a food drive for the Central Virginia Food Bank, a community-wide Spring Clean Up, Yard of the Month competition, Christmas Front Entryway contest and a Community Yard Sale. Additionally, we have the most extensive network of Crime Watch Block Captains in the greater Richmond area and provide a forum for discussion of neighborhood issues. We also produce The Oxford Observer quarterly newsletter which provides a wealth of local information, member-submitted news stories, and details about upcoming OCA events. For all we do, we need you. We hope you'll consider joining the great Oxford Civic Association.

For more information, please fill out our online contact form, and someone will get in touch with you.

You can also click here to download a copy of our bylaws.

Nextdoor Oxford

Please be aware that the Greater Oxford Civic Association has no affiliation with the website "Nextdoor.com." We are an entirely separate entity with our own website. The geographic area depicted as Oxford in Nextdoor.com does not correspond with the Greater Oxford Civic Association's neighborhood. The Oxford neighborhood on Nextdoor encompasses all of the area surrounded by Forest Hill Ave., Chippenham Parkway and Huguenot Rd. The opinions expressed on Nextdoor.com are those of the individuals who post them and do not necessarily reflect those of the Greater Oxford Civic Association board.